

II Timothy, Chapter 3

A Life Worth Imitating

1. Think about one or two of the values your parents (or other adults in your life) tried to teach you as you were growing up. In what ways have those truths helped you throughout your life?

2. What does Paul say that people will be like in the last days (v. 1-5)? How might this actually give Timothy hope when he encounters such people?

---

---

---

3. In what ways does our society try to beguile those “whose spiritual foundations are weak”?

---

4. How can we, as Christ followers, protect ourselves from the evil influences present in our society today?

---

Iconium (see Acts 14:4-6) _____

Lystra (see Acts 14:19) _____

6. What was the most important thing Paul wanted Timothy to take away from the many persecutions the apostle had endured?
